VISIT OF LORD BOWDEN

Statement by the Acting Prime Minister, the Rt. Hon. J. McEwen

The Acting Prime Minister, Mr. John McEwen, announced today that the Right Honourable Lord Bowden of Chesterfield, Minister of State for Education and Science in the British Government, will visit Australia for two weeks beginning next Monday, January 25.

During his stay in Australia, Lord Bowden, who was formerly Principal of the Manchester College of Science and Technology and Dean of the Faculty of Technology at Manchester University, will have talks with Australian Ministers, officials and university leaders.

On Saturday evening, January 30, he will deliver a paper to the Summer School being held by the Australian Institute of Political Science at the Albert Hall in Canberra.

During his stay in Australia, Lord Bowden will be the guest of the Australian Government.

CANBERRA,
22nd January, 1965.
