"My Government and the people of Australia send their congratulations and warm good wishes to Japan for the opening of EXPO 70 in Osaka.

We wish you every success with the first world exposition in the Asian region. Australia is proud to be among the 78 nations contributing to this remarkable international presentation of man's achievements and aspirations for the future.

We are confident the Exposition will be a notable event, and that it will live long in the memories of all who are fortunate enough to see it. "

To the Australian EXPO Staff :

"My warmest good wishes go to all associated with the Australian exhibit at EXPO 70. Thank you for working so hard and so enthusiastically to give us a pavilion of which we can be proud.

You have a responsible task in the weeks ahead. I know you will represent us well, and that throughout the period of EXPO our pavilion will be a credit to Australia.

Good luck, and every success at Osaka. "
