

PRIME MINISTER

FOR PRESS

14 SEPTEMBER 1978

The Prime Minister has written to the retiring and incoming National Presidents of the Returned Services League of Australia. His letters are attached.

PRIME MINISTER

CANBERRA

Dear Sir William,

I am writing to you on the occasion of your retirement as National President of the Returned Services League of Australia to wish you well in the future and to congratulate you on your work as National President.

Your job has been a most important and difficult one and it has been my experience that you have discharged your duty in a most creditable manner.

I am sure that you will continue to serve both the community in general and the R.S.L. in particular.

Yours sincerely,

(Malcolm Fraser)

Sir William Hall, C.B.E., D.S.O., E.D.,
Returned Services League of Australia,
P.O. Box 303,
CANBERRA CITY A.C.T. 2601