

PRIME MINISTER

FOR MEDIA

17 April 1984

I met today with the Premier of Tasmania, Mr. Robin Gray, as a follow-up to our meeting on 6 April.

The discussions were productive and another meeting will be held within the next two weeks at which it is hoped substantial progress towards a resolution of the issues between the Commonwealth and Tasmania will be achieved.

It was agreed that no further public comment would be made before the next meeting.