ROYAL VISIT 1963

The Australian Secretary to the Queen, Sir Roy Dowling, will visit Perth, Darwin, Alice Springs and Adelaide during an eight-day tour beginning on Monday.

During the tour, Sir Roy Dowling will have detailed discussions with Royal Visit directors in Western Australia (Mr. R. Doig), in the Northern Territory (Mr. R. Nott) and in South Australia (Mr. L. King).

Sir Roy Dowling will also tour and inspect the places which it is proposed the Queen should visit in the two States and the Northern Territory.

He is scheduled to arrive in Perth at 6.15 p.m. on Monday, in Darwin at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, in Alice Springs at 5 p.m. on Friday and in Adelaide at 2 p.m. on Sunday (October 14).

The tour will complete the series of visits being made by Sir Roy Dowling to all State capitals.
