

NEW YEAR MESSAGE FROM THE PRIME MINISTER

I believe we can look forward to a year of continuing growth and prosperity. All the signs point to a further improvement in our internal economic conditions and I hope, as we all do, for a similar improvement in international relations so that we may pursue the development of our country in peace.

I wish all my fellow Australians a Happy New Year.

---

CANBERRA,

1st January, 1963.