The Crown Prince of Laos, His Royal Highness, Prince Vong Savang, will make a twelve day visit to Australia next month.

The Government warmly welcomes this visit, which reflects the friendship existing between our two countries.

The Crown Prince, who will arrive on the 19th of November, will visit the mainland States, Canberra and the Snowy Mountains. He will be accompanied by his Minister for Public Health and other senior officials.

I hope that the Crown Prince and his party will enjoy their stay in Australia. Their visit will end on the 1st of December.
