

OFFICE OF THE PRESS SECRETARY TO THE
PRIME MINISTER,
PARLIAMENT HOUSE,
CANBERRA.

24th January, 1967.

PRIME MINISTER'S MOVEMENTS

The Prime Minister is returning to Melbourne at lunch time today and will be working from his Melbourne office for the rest of the week.

Among other things, he will be preparing for his New Zealand visit, (he leaves for Wellington on Thursday week, 2nd February) and on Thursday of this week, he will speak at an Australia Day luncheon in Melbourne.

Mr. Holt plans to spend the long weekend at Portsea and will then return to Canberra. There will be Cabinet on the Wednesday (1st February) and if time permits, I will try to arrange a Heads of Service briefing for the end of that day.

The PM is due to leave for New Zealand on the following morning.

Press Secretary

I will be in Melbourne until Thursday evening when I will return to Canberra for the weekend.

My Melbourne numbers are -

635086 (Office)
630261 (Hotel Windsor after hours)

A. EGGLETON
Press Secretary