ECONOMIC CONSULTATIONS

Statement by the Acting Prime Minister Mr John McEwen

The Commonwealth Government will hold a further series of Economic Consultations with representatives of industry and commerce in Canberra on Wednesday, 5th July.

The Government welcomed the opportunity to obtain at first hand the views of current and prospective developments in the Australian economy from those who were actively engaged in business and industry.

On Wednesday morning, 5th July, Ministers will have discussions first with representatives of the Export Development Council and then with representatives of the Manufacturing Industries Advisory Council. In the afternoon, they will confer with representatives of national organisations.

Ministers will meet representatives of the Australian Council of Trade Unions on Tuesday, 4th July.
