NATIONAL LIBRARY COUNCIL

Appointment of a New Member

Statement by the Prime Minister, Mr John Gorton

The Prime Minister announced today that the Governor-General had appointed Dr Ursula Hoff, Curator of Prints and Drawings at the National Gallery of Victoria, as a member of the Council of the National Library of Australia.

Dr Hoff, who is also a member of the Australian Humanities Research Council, replaces Mrs Kathleen Fitzpatrick who has resigned from the Council for personal reasons.

The Prime Minister expressed his pleasure at Dr. Hoff's appointment. Her knowledge and experience will be of immense assistance in the Library Council.
