

NATIONAL LIBRARY COUNCIL - APPOINTMENT OF CHAIRMAN
AND MEMBERS

Statement by the Prime Minister, Mr. John Gorton

The Prime Minister announced today that the Governor-General had re-appointed the Chairman of the National Library Council and six other Council members for varying terms of office from 23rd March 1970. He explained that the Parliament, as provided by the National Library Act of 1960, had already elected two Parliamentary members to the Council in the persons of Sir Alister McMullin, President of the Senate, and Mr. G. M. Bryant from the House of Representatives.

The re-appointments announced today are:

Sir Grenfell Price, C. M. G. (Chairman)	)	Reappointed
Sir Leonard Huxley, K. B. E.	)	for one year
	)
The Honourable Sir Peter Crisp	)	Reappointed
Sir Harold Wyndham, C. B. E. ,	)	for two years
	)
Dr. Ursula Hoff, C. B. E.	)
Mr. K. B. Myer, D. S. C.	)	Reappointed
	)	for three years
Mr. W. R. Cumming, C. V. O.	)

The Prime Minister emphasised that these re-appointments reflected the Government's appreciation of the tireless and devoted energies of members of the Council.

---

CANBERRA
10 April 1970