

FOR PRESS:

P. M. No. 112/1970

DEATH OF SENATOR ORMONDE

Comment by the Prime Minister, Mr. John Gorton

I was sorry to learn of the death of Senator James Ormonde:

Senator Ormonde was a sincere and dedicated Labor man and for the past twelve years had served the Senate with quiet distinction. He was a man of integrity, high principles, and humanity.

I extend my deepest sympathy, and that of my Government colleagues, to the late Senator's family.

CANBERRA
30 November 1970