BRISBANE DEATH

The Prime Minister, Mr. Whitlam, and the Attorney-General designate, Senator Murphy, today held discussions with officials of the Attorney-General's Department following a bomb blast in Brisbane resulting in the death of a 43-year old American, Thomas Patrick Enright, last Friday.

Senator Murphy said later the relevant officials had been instructed to investigate any Commonwealth aspect of the incident.

A report would be made as soon as possible.

State authorities were co-operating.
