

PRIME MINISTER

PRESS STATEMENT NO. 38

17 January 1973

HIGH COURT DESIGN COMPETITION

Six competitors have been selected to submit designs for a new High Court building in Canberra. The competitors will be required to submit entries developed to final design standard by 1 June 1973.

The selection of the winner's design will be made soon after. The competitors are:

- Cameron, Chisholm and Nicol, of Perth
- Rodney Connors, of Sydney
- Edwards, Madigan, Torzillo and Briggs, of Sydney
- Guy Maron, of Adelaide
- McIntyre, McIntyre, of Melbourne
- Perrott, Lyon, Timlock and Kesa, of Melbourne

Their selection follows the competition of adjudication of entries in the first stage of the High Court Design Competition.

The Assessors for the competition are:

- Sir Garfield Barwick,
- Sir John Overall,
- Professor P.M. Karmel,
- Mr. E.H. Farmer, and
- Mr. Daryl Jackson.

CANBERRA. A.C.T.