Press Statement No. 85

4 May 1973

Re-Appointment of Chairman of the Tariff Board

The Prime Minister announced today that the Executive Council had approved the re-appointment of Mr. G.A. Rattigan, C.B.E., as Chairman of the Tariff Board after his existing appointment ends on 15 May 1973. In accordance with Mr. Rattigan's wish his extended term of service would be until 15 November 1976 instead of a full five year term.

The Prime Minister expressed the Australian Government's appreciation of the continuation of Mr. Rattigan's services in this very important position, and especially at a time when a major review of the Australian tariff is being undertaken.
