

PRIME MINISTER

13 May 1974

ASSISTANCE TO QUEENSLAND FOR HOUSING RESTORATION WORK

The Prime Minister announced today that the Premier of Queensland had accepted the Australian Government's offer of assistance to Queensland for housing restoration work.

Mr Whitlam said that his offer, announced on 5 May, involved 70 volunteer tradesmen employed by the Australian Department of Housing and Construction going to Brisbane to assist in the reconstruction of flood damaged homes.

CANBERRA. A.C.T