

ACTING PRIME MINISTER

FOR PRESS

6th June, 1977.

The next scheduled meeting of the Federal Cabinet will take place in Brisbane on Tuesday 14th June 1977.

It is understood that the only previous occasion when there has been such a meeting in Brisbane was a meeting of the Ministry in Jun. 1957 at a time when Sir Arthur Fadden was Acting Prime Minister.

Premiers and other State Ministers meet in Canberra relatively often. The Cabinet's business on 14th June is not particularly related to Queensland - it will be the routine weekly meeting - but it will give Federal Ministers an opportunity to meet Queensland Ministers in their own State and to further develop the associations between them.
