

PRIME MINISTER

FOR PRESS

29 SEPTEMBER, 1978

DEATH OF POPE JOHN PAUL

I am shocked and deeply saddened.

Pope John Paul held out such promise of continuing the work of his two predecessors in striving ^{for} a peaceful and more caring world and for the betterment of mankind.

The world has lost a great and humble messenger for peace.

Mankind will mourn his untimely death.