PRIME MINISTER

FOR PRESS

31 OCTOBER 1978

MEETING WITH SIR CHARLES COURT AND MR. BJELKE-PETERSEN

I have had a report from the Acting Minister for Trade and Resources and Minister for Special Trade Representations, Mr. Garland, after his meeting with Sir Charles Court at the weekend.

I have also had a very useful telephone discussion with Sir Charles Court today.

Following that conversation I have responded positively to the Premier's suggestion that there should be discussions with Sir Charles and the Queensland Premier on the Government's minerals export guidelines after the Loan Council meeting in Melbourne next week.
