

From the Press Office

SUMMARY OF ABC'S "P.M."

The Foreign Affairs Minister, Mr. Peacock, has made a major foreign policy statement to the Parliament in which he re-affirmed the Government's view that the present crisis in Southeast Asia was the result of Vietnam's invasion of Kampuchea and its alliance with the Soviet Union. Mr. Peacock interviewed. Senator Ken Wriedt interviewed.

The Government survived a censure motion today against the Prime Minister over the Robinson affair. Mr. Fraser did not take part in the debate. Mr. Robinson told the Parliament the reasons for his resignation. These included administrative and organisational matters - no Government policy was involved.

Vietnamese are now claiming China has committed 500,000 troops to the battle in Vietnam. Heavy fighting is continuing on most fronts.

Man in Rose Bay, Sydney, stole the school cane from Headmaster at Woollahra public school. He was annoyed because his 8-year old son was to be caned. Department of Education will not press charges.

Melbourne's Moomba Festival will be celebrating its 25th Anniversary this week. Graham Kennedy was crowned King of Moomba.

Report on exhibition of edible art that is part of Western Australia's 150th Anniversary celebrations.