The Federal Cabinet will be meeting in Brisbane on Tuesday 9 August.

This will be the second occasion on which the present Cabinet has met out of Canberra - the first being in Adelaide, prior to the Constitutional Convention, on Tuesday 26 April.

In addition to regular Cabinet business the Brisbane meeting will give Federal Ministers an important opportunity to have discussions with community groups, with unions and with industry.

The Brisbane meeting reflects the importance the Federal Government places on issues affecting Queenslanders.

As opportunities arise Cabinet meetings will be held in other State capitals and in Darwin.
