

PRIME MINISTER

FOR MEDIA

21 July 1986

The Governor-General, accompanied by Lady Stephen, has left Australia to attend the Royal Wedding in London. The Governor-General will be away for approximately one week.

Sir James Rowland, Governor of New South Wales, will serve as Administrator during the Governor-General's absence.