

14

PRIME MINISTER

FOR MEDIA

17 NOVEMBER 1988

I hope all Australians will now get enthusiastically behind Melbourne's bid for the Games - just as they so willingly supported Brisbane's superb hosting of the 1982 Commonwealth Games.

Clearly the officials had an unenviable task, but the various competing claims should now be set aside for the common purpose of winning international support for Australia.