

PRIME MINISTER

FOR MEDIA

30 JULY 1990

It is my practice while overseas not to comment on domestic matters.

However, as the proposal for a special national conference has generated significant interest, I believe it is appropriate to make the following comment:

I have been kept informed of this proposal. It is a serious proposal and should be discussed within the Party. I will, of course, be involved in those discussions when I return.