

17

PRIME MINISTER

STAFF CHANGES

With Nicole Feely joining the Sydney Organising Committee of the Olympic Games, Grahame Morris becomes my Chief of Staff and political adviser.

Arthur Sinodinos will take on a new role of Policy Director in addition to his current role of Economic Adviser.

Tony Nutt will move from the Attorney-General's Office to become my Principal Private Secretary.

Anthony Benschel moves from the Press Office to become Senior Adviser in a number of portfolios including communications, industrial relations and education.

26 May 1997